

HISTORIC PRESERVATION COMMISSION MEMBER VOLUNTEERS WANTED!

The Village of Fairport is seeking citizens interested in serving on the Fairport Historic Preservation Commission; both full and alternate members. Preservation Commission members must be residents of the Village.

The Commission meets one time each month on the 1st Thursday at 6pm. Additional meetings are facilitated as needed.

Ideal candidates would possess the ability to participate in a collaborative process, work with other Commission members to consider diverse ideas, and reach a decision. Members should also have strong attentiveness and listening skills. While there is no requirement for a technical background, interest and understanding of preservation and architecture is desirable.

Interested persons should apply to Julie Domaratz, Mayor at jmd@fairportny.com

The deadline for submitting applications is July 24, 2019.
